Information Bulletin 02 – 28/07/2016

Information about extra training time

We will offer extra training times for athletes not involved in the specific part of the championships:

- Senior and Junior skaters (participating in the European Championships) in the time of the Youth and Cadettes Championships
- Skaters which are not participating in any part of European Championships but want to train with their home coaches (e.g. because of participation in the World Championships)

We will offer time slots of 30 min which have to be paid

Figures

see detailed schedule – always early in the morning until 30 min before the start of the official training or competitions

Free Skating (Single, Pairs, Dance, Solo Dance)

see detailed schedule – late in the evening, starting 30 min after the last competitions or ceremonies more slots are possible

Training with music is not guaranteed

General Rules for Booking extra training times

We will offer time slots of 30 min; the rate for each time slot is 5 € per skater for 30 min.

The fee will be collected after the training, please be prepared to pay cash.

For those who book more than one time slot the full payment must be made after the first training.

In case of delay of the evening competitions, the start of the training will be postponed and the shifts will respect the reservations

Each athlete can book more than one time slot.

In case of an excessive number of reservations we will not guarantee the availability of time slots for all skaters (first book, first get)

For all disciplines of free skating we will organise different time slots according to the pre-bookings

Use the pre-registration form and send it to the following mail address: student@ft1844-freiburg.de

You will receive an e-mail confirming your reservation(s)
